SCRIPTURE:

Deuteronomy 4:9-14

<sup>9</sup>You must be very careful not to forget the things you have seen God do for you. Keep reminding yourselves, and tell your children and grandchildren as well. <sup>10</sup>Do you remember the day you stood in the LORD's presence at Mount Sinai? The LORD said, "Moses, bring the people of Israel here. I want to speak to them so they will obey me as long as they live, and so they will teach their children to obey me too."

<sup>11</sup> Mount Sinai was surrounded by deep dark clouds, and fire went up to the sky. You came to the foot of the mountain, <sup>12</sup>and the LORD spoke to you from the fire. You could hear him and understand what he was saying, but you couldn't see him. <sup>13</sup>The LORD said he was making an agreement with you, and he told you that your part of the agreement is to obey the Ten Commandments. Then the LORD wrote these Commandments on two flat stones.

<sup>14</sup> That's when the LORD commanded me to give you the laws and teachings you must obey in the land that you will conquer west of the Jordan River.

Mark 12:28-34

<sup>28</sup> One of the teachers of the Law of Moses came up while Jesus and the Sadducees were arguing. When he heard Jesus give a good answer, he asked him, "What is the most important commandment?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, "The most important one says: 'People of Israel, you have only one Lord and God. <sup>30</sup>You must love him with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength.' <sup>31</sup> The second most important commandment says: 'Love others as much as you love yourself.' No other commandment is more important than these."

<sup>32</sup> The man replied, "Teacher, you are certainly right to say there is only one God. <sup>33</sup> It is also true that we must love God with all our heart, mind, and strength, and that we must love others as much as we love ourselves. These commandments are more important than all the sacrifices and offerings that we could possibly make."

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that the man had given a sensible answer, he told him, "You are not far from God's kingdom." After this, no one dared ask Jesus any more questions.
